Ancient Hula a.k.a. Hula Kahiko is a non-western influenced dance from Hawai'i. This dance is accompanied with IPU (gourd) drum and chanting. Please bring a sarong!

Misao Mizuno has studied Ancient Hula dance & chant with Kumu Hula, Pekelo Day in Big Island, Hawai'i. She performed at the opening ceremony of the 1999 Indigenous People's Conference, and the opening ceremony of Merrie Monarch Dance Festival. As a soloist, she has performed at Volcano Kilauea for Goddess Pele as a part of poetry reading event, and at various African dance festivals in Hawai'i. Through her dance, she has supported and performed for events that promote peace/unity and the environment.
